

Governor hosts reception for 21st Century Research and Technology Fund award recipients

(November 01) Indiana's efforts to create a robust innovation economy by investing in entrepreneurial companies with market changing technologies has begun to yield tangible results. This year, the 21st Century Research and Technology Fund has invested $30 million in 28 Indiana ventures that are actively developing and commercializing market changing innovations.

Read the news release.

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 16
October 30–November 5, 2006

McCain meets with governor

(October 31) Governor Daniels and U.S. Senator John McCain held a joint news conference Tuesday in the governor's office. Senator McCain was in Indiana campaigning for U.S. Representative Chris Chocola. Click here to listen to audio from the news conference.

Governor Daniels launches Entrepreneurship Week

(October 31) Governor Daniels addressed attendees of Techpoint's Indiana Technology Summit 9 Tuesday to launch Entrepreneurship Week in the state. Governor Daniels discussed the state's economic development progress over the past year with a focus on the high tech sector.

Click here to visit Governor Daniels' Web site to watch video of his remarks at the Techpoint Technology Summit 9.

Governor greets trick-or-treaters

(October 31) Governor Daniels and First Lady Cheri Daniels hosted trick-or-treaters at their residence on Meridian Street Tuesday. Governor Daniels dressed as Capt. Jack Sparrow from the movie "Pirates of the Caribbean." In addition to giving out candy, the governor and first lady handed out mini-Frisbee-like discs stamped with the state's fitness website, www.fitness.IN.gov to encourage children to exercise.

